Adonis has been very busy at work. But I know that he is fishing with Brian. So if they show up I will no longer be the starter boat.

Dennis that must have happened between the time I called you and now. I heard this by text before I heard back from you. I was somewhat out of the loop on this as well.

I guess Joe was available and called Brian asking if he had gotten a ride and at that point I had not spoken to you or Brian with a definite answer.

Sorry for the confusion! :huh: :dry:

Sorry Dennis, Brian called me to check who the ride coordinator was. I told him that it was Kenny. Not an half an hour later I received a message from Leigh telling me that he could not fish as he broke his foot. I then contacted Brian to find out if he had spoken to Kenny. He said yes and that Kenny as going to work on getting him a ride. So he told me that nothing had been set as of yet. No one was left out of the loop as I texted Kenny as soon as Brian and I had finished talking. Then I texted Kenny to inform that Brian and I had booked the tournament. At that point I did not know that Kenny had contacted anyone.I know that you fish alot on your own so if you want to take Brian that would be fine as well. Let me know what you want to do.

I just reviewed this entire forum topic. I noticed that Dennis Packes was waiting to see if Buzz is going to fish with Mike K.

There is no response so if Dennis is looking for a ride either Big D or I can take him depending on who fishes with Brian. Packes if you need a ride contact Kenny so that the ride coordinator can set it up.

Packes will not be fishing for quite some time as he has shattered his ankle and will require reconstructive surgery.

And yes Joe I was out of the loop as decisions were made and I was told about them after they were made. No big deal because I had not heard from Big Dennis yet. Just sayin'!

this is true.....I'll be out of the loop for some time for sure.....

any plans for a barbecue this year?

I miss you bitches

Dennis we have not made any plans this season for a barbecue. I have been very busy working in my son's house in every spare minute (aside from fishing time) and he is getting married in 3 weeks, so I am too busy to even think about trying to organize that.

This year unfortunately it is just not going to happen. Maybe next year. :) :)

Hey Ken, I know how busy you have been. Just wondering if you have an AOY update after the Mahopac tournament?
