
Coleman Crawdad for Sale

Posted by Leigh - 2014/08/17 09:42

I decided that I am selling my Crawdad since I never use it anymore and thought that one of my Outcast bros might find a good AND useful home for it. The boat is in good condition, does not leak at all & I have put in some new larger carpeted floors for more standing / foot / storage room as well as a removable carpeted piece for placing a battery. It could probably use a good cleaning although it is not at all dirty. I also have a pair of long paddles for it. $200 if one of you guys wants it otherwise I will list it on Craigslist for $250. Please let me know - thanks.
