Congratulations Brian, you're on fire!

Nice win to go along with YOUR first place on Candlewood! Joe likes to think he helped you on Candlewood because it was a team tournament but it was all you, you would have done that even if you were fishing alone!

Oh wait, you don't have a boat..... without Joe you would've been sitting home, ha ha ha ha ha!

Congratulations, keep making all that noise and your nickname will change!

:woohoo: :laugh: :laugh: :huh: :dry:

Brian two in a row - WOW. Congrats. Can't wait to see how you do at Bantam.

You don't need to talk too much. Your Tournament results speaks Volumes!
