Not sure if this is New news or old,But apparently you need a Blue Ezpass when trailering....If not you will be charged a violation...Im in the process of trying to dispute 2 months of charges, which Im being told can take up to a month to process..PIA I tell ya...This all changed when they removed the toll booths @ the throgs....

JP it looks like after reading Ez Pass information that once they took to both down you need blue pass when going through new readers on bridges. I don't know why, when I went through readers on Newburgh Beacon bridge With the white pass I got NO violation. Does anyone in club have similar experiences.

The only violation I got, all come from the throgs...all other tolls read the white tag properly..

Do you have to go to the EZ-Pass offices? Or is this something that you can take care of online?

I have a Blue one for several years now because I was overcharged once and it took less than 2 hours to correct.

Here is a form you can fill out and mail in to EZPass....It seems they send you the blue and just add it to your existing account

Watch your ezipass bill like a hawk..Im constantly being ripped off..
I was charged 21.79 heading north in Dec.then on the way south was charged 12.76
They are still over charging me for an extra axle..so pissed..

So finally after months of arguing & fighting with ezpass I finally got a higher up to see my case how I was seeing it, as they were over charging me for an extra axle since the new Tolls went up @ the throngs.
I was credited $62 to my ezpass account..
It was annoying & a huge hassle but I never gave up..

So I just spent the last 40 minutes disputing over $120 in over charges from March..(6 months).It is the Throgs neck toll every time..Charges me as class 2,3,6,7.whatever it feels like that day..lol.. keep an Eye on it..if you have 1 axle you are a class 2..2 axles class 3..New Rochele has never been wrong..
My Replenishment each month jumped to $135..lol should be $80..

I just scrutinized my bill and another Throgs Neck bridge fuck up this time they hit me for Class 7 which is $23.16 instead of the Class 2 $10.12!

If you don't check they will fuck you!

And they had the nerve to ask if I put extra weight in the vehicle or trailer to which I said "it weighed less because of all the gas I used without refueling", so now I wait!

This is the 2nd time this season and it cannot be just JP and I so you guys need to look at you ez-pass statements!

:ohmy: :unsure: :ohmy: :huh: :huh: :dry:
