Fishing and Baseball have the same season.

They start and end just about the same times. ;)

The Yankees are playing very well and the team is together. They will beat the LA Angels and win the series no matter who is there to play! :woohoo: :huh: :woohoo:

I can hear the "Bleacher Creatures" yelling Joe Torre, Joe Torre, as he hoists the Championship trophy in the New Yankee Stadium.

I did not mean Joe Torre When I said Torre would be holding the trophy I meant Torri Hunter from the Angels.I just spelled his name wrong. Kenny give me a break, I'm a Mets fan I don't think that we can take a Phillies/Yankees World Series. LOL

I already spoke to Kenny...as a Met fan I can not and will not bet on the Phillies. I actually want the Yankees to win, over them. If the Dodgers made it there would have been a bet. At least the Mets had injury excuses...What happened to the Sox? (that one's for Big D, LOL)
