

Kensico Reservoir with Mikey W

Posted by UnionBass3 - 2010/04/19 14:11

We pushed off the shore about 8 am and headed out in search of jerkbait crazy smallies. There was a light sprinkle that lasted an hour. It was cold, in the low 50's all day but the fishing heated up as the day moved on. Water temps were 52-53 all day. We caught over 30 fish and all were about 2 to 3 lbs with a few almost 4lbs. We caught them on a variety of jerkbaits, jigs, swimbaits, and spinnerbaits. http://outcastbass.com/images/fbfiles/images/4_17_2010_Angry_Mike.jpg

Nice.

You have any photos of any 2-3 pounders. LOL

I am having trouble posting pics. The pics are mostly too large. The one's that I posted I had to resize.
