
2011 Tentative Schedule Is Set

Posted by Kenny - 2010/10/27 23:45

The new tournament committee met tonight and we have set a tentative schedule. I have filled out all the applications for the CT. tournaments and have faxed them as well as scanned them to the CT D.E.P. I will speak to them sometime on Thursday 10/28/10 as well and will post the schedule as soon as I know the applications are accepted.

Kenny, Thanks for hosting. Guys for future reference the pizza alone is reason to get on the tournament committee.
