What do you guys think? Should we stay at our favorite Best Western in Bethel or up at the Quality Inn in Torrington, that we stayed in this past year?

The Rocky River is pretty much in between both(18 miles to Bantam according to Google) and is very accomodating to Bass boats.Usually very economical as well if split by two.Just an option to consider.Good Pub / Restaurant right down the street,they do offer bread...>...'Wood Paulie, Sounds good. It sounds like you have stayed there before. Do you know if they have AAA rates? I will check it out on the internet. Thanks. Anyone else ever stay there?
