Chris is not fishing I am with Joey Bags, does this change the order or does Joey Bags and me become #7? I registered Joey Bags and me a week or two ago.

No and since he was at the meeting and knew that Mike B was not being drawn for boat number and didn't ask for a ride there or request one here what is your point? I have been handling getting guys rides for many tournaments this season, but they need to request a ride because my crystal ball broke last week!

Since Bags was never registered by the draw, he is the starter boat. The new order will be revised at the top of the post!
