Quick update.

Francine had a kidney stone removed and will not be able to make this one.

Pretty much the same procedure that Bill will be having.

Hoping he has a speedy recovery.

I will be flying solo on this one. B)

I hope Francine recovers quickly and completely!

On another note Jimmy and I am not able to make this one due to work (for Jimmy) and I have been a little under the weather plus my trailer is not put back together yet from the repair that was needed and new bunks. Good luck to all of you attending, I will be contacting Bill Kohler and get the permit and weigh in equipment to him! The start order will be posted shortly!
