Guys,

I'm selling my 2013 Ford Edge SEL. Its in really good shape. Interior is excellent. Mileage is high at 297k. Its all highway. Roof rack. 4 new tires. Black. Kelley Blue book has it at 5,800 to 8,300. I'd start conversation at 6k. It runs great and if someone doesn't drive a ton I think its still a sweet ride.

Thanks....

297K is the mileage? That's actual or a mistake it sounds like more than would be expected that's why I ask.

:huh: :huh: :huh:

Lol... its actual. We bought it new. Kristen drives to Queens everyday from Connecticut. It's just a depreciation nightmare. That's why a $35k car that's only 7 years old is 6k.

Okay I get it. But that is way too much mileage for me to consider buying it.
