
Congratulations to Top 3 Bantam Lake

Posted by Joe - 2021/08/22 11:28

Congratulations to the Top 3 Anglers from the Outcast Bass Bantam Lake tournament and all that were able to catch a few. Kevin showed us why he is leading in the AOY race. He kicked all of our asses weighing in a limit over 10 lbs. This was the only limit brought to the scales with 20 club members competing. 2nd place finish and Big Bass for the tournament went to Dennis "Senko Man" Packes. (Inside joke) For a guy who told me that he would never throw a Senko he caught a beauty on it to win lunger. Third place went to Bill Steimann, who weighed in a beast of a smallmouth bass.

1st Kevin Kohler

2nd Dennis Packes

3rd Bill Steimann

Big Bass Dennis Packes

Also kudos to new member Alex, who weighed in a nice smallmouth in his first club tournament.

I honestly feel that a 2 day on let's say Saratoga is cheaper then a 1 day on bantam then a 1 day on twin.. maybe a few more 2 days a little further..we still have swinging bridge, zoar, housy, some jersey lakes, some mass lakes...I know Webster lake in mass is a good lake..it's all about permits..Kenny can speak on that better.. We have copake, further ny lakes ect ect..

I was kind of thinking in the same vein. Kenny said to me that the travel is getting tougher. So maybe we do less tournaments with more 2 days that still count as individual tourneys. Keep the 2 Team fundraisers maybe Oscawana, Zoar, Lilli or Candlewood this way no long trips. We can do a split 2 day like Highland day one and Bantam day two in the spring or fall. I like starting NY at Saratoga and a 2 day Congamond as well. Just some ideas. Chime in. Then the tournament committee can get started on a 2022 schedule.

This way we travel once a month..noooo Fri tournies.. Then have the classic in October or April and have it count double for aoy..there are your 13 tournies at half the travel...

And the classic means something... And all will go

Another rule that would be awesome is the classic has to be on a lake that was not on the schedule...I honestly think if we asked and made a donation mahopac would let us fish in oct

Old guys should retire? You "so called" young guys :laugh: need to realize that the club would not exist for very long if left to you lazy guys to run, because you would have to do things beside sit on the sidelines and bitch about what you want to happen!

I remember at least 5 or 6 Long Island based Bass clubs that no longer exist because of that kind of attitude and lazy ass "so called" young guys!
