Atlantic Bass will be featured in Bass Times Posted by Joe - 2009/10/17 00:22

Just a heads up...Alliance Co-Founders Atlantic Bass Anglers will be featured in an up coming issue of Bass Times Magazine. They were selected because of their unique website, which includes a Hall of Fame section. Congrats to Ray Scully and the Boys on the recognition. We are linked to their site and the Alliance. I am sure that we will be getting some hits.
