
Bantam & Highland 2 Day Weekend Event in May

Posted by Leigh - 2010/01/14 15:09

Are you guys thinking of staying up at Lone Oak campground for this weekend or are you thinking about staying some place that would be closer to both lakes.

Last year I could not get into Lone Oak so Woody & I stayed at a motel in Torrington, which is a lot closer to both lakes.

There is a Quality Inn & a Days Inn located in Torrington that I will look into for all those interested. Let me know.

Leigh thanks and please do find out and let us know! Could you post the address of the motels? If it is in fact closer we should stay there! :huh:

I need to do some research on room rates but here are some details.

It is 10 miles from Bantam Lake to the motels in Torrington & about 9 miles from Torrington to Highland Lake in Winsted.

Torrington is north of Bantam on the way to Highland Lake. There is a Quality & Days Inn there.

It is 32 miles from Bantam to Lone Oak & you need to drive past both Torrington & Highland Lake to get there. Lone Oak is 14 miles past Highland Lake.

Woody & I stayed at the Quality Inn aka the Torrington Motor Lodge. It is not quite as nice as the Best Western in Bethel, but was a decent place to spend the night. There are several good places to eat in the area.

Let me see what kind of rates I can get for booking 5 or more rooms.

And the winner is

The Quality Inn just gave me a rate of $79.99 per night based on taking 5 rooms. They have an ample parking lot for the boats & the clerk said they have an outside electric hook up to charge batteries. They have an indoor pool & a workout room and I think they have a 24/7 coffee machine in the lobby.

UNFORTUNATELY....the closest strip club is located 22 miles to the south in Wolcott CT.

Leigh get us a phone #. And a group name for the rate. So we can call up and reserve. Also see if they can give us a block of rooms on the first floor all together.

I was planning on reserving at least five rooms on the 1st floor. I figured on waiting until after next weeks meeting to see if we might need more. The phone number is 860-496-8808 and it is located at 395 Winsted Road in Torrington.

There's a decent restaurant across the street right off the exit and fast food and other options nearby.

This would be the closest place to also get any kind of adult beverages since Torrington is a dry town.BYOB....Paulie

I think I remember a few years back some boats got broken into at these hotels also,Not many clubs stay in Torrington for that reason.

Welcome to OUTCAST, Paulie. Mr. DOOM & GLOOM :laugh: I have stayed at this motel twice without any problems. I'm not saying that it cant happen.

I did not know Torrington was a dry town, but I'm pretty sure you can get some brews in Bantam.

As a rule, I usually bring my rods & tackle bag into the room so I can retie for the next day. I do the same with anything else that is valuable or leave it locked up in my truck.
