Congrats Kenny on a very stingy day !!

the BIDKID IS BACK !...nice job Kenny !!

and Joey Ish, how did it feel to land second place ? (if only for a couple of minutes.....lol) on a side note; kudos to Mike K and his partner for taking the penalty with a grain of salt....unfortunately the rules are in place to keep things level, and Kenny needs to enforce them to keep us all in check.....you guys all handled it well.

Welcome to Outcast ! B)

Thanks guys!

I would like to apologize to Mike W, Joe I. and to Buzz for my mistake that led to leaving Mike out of the 2nd place he earned and having Joe think he was 2nd and Buzz think he was 3rd. As soon as Leigh (the secretary) looked over the sheet he immediately found my mistake. I would have found it as I was calculating all the results but the sooner those involved are notified the better, so I told everyone before I left the launch.

Again my apologies! :huh: :huh:

Great Job on a very difficult day Kenny...You're the man to beat after one tx.

Place was incredibly stingy yesterday but as everyone stated,it's obvious there are a load of quality fish there.

Thanks to Outcast and the TX commitee for running this event.Happy to be part of the whole mess.....B) :( :) :laugh: :cheer: ;) :P :angry: :unsure: :ohmy: :huh: :dry: :lol: :silly: :blink: :blush: :kiss: :woohoo: :side: :S

Nice to see you catching fish again Poppi!! Stingy wasn't the word Paulie! So frustrating to see 4's and 5's all over and watch them laugh at me. I felt 3 keepers would have taken first. Unless ofcourse someone stuck a pig.

Kenny, I didn't see the full results...where did Packes finish?

Mike, Dennis finished in 6th place.

Full results will be distributed by email in a PDF file. It will include; The Weigh-In sheet, the Tournament Report and the A.O.Y. Standings sheet. Of course that will take place after the report is finished and since you already answered my email I am just waiting for a reply from Joe Ish and the report will be done! :laugh: :huh:

Hey Kenny I sent the report to you about an hour ago.

Congrats on the Victory! Congrats to all that stuck it out on a tough day. I had to keep praying that the pickeral's were not going to bust off my jerk baits. Surprized that Mike did not notice the mistake...Maybe he wanted to give you a "Head start" in the standings.
