
Rides and launching order

Posted by Bassthum - 2011/03/08 17:48

Hey guys another tournament season is creeping up on us again. As most of you know I (Mikey Bong) is the ride courdinator for this year. If anyone needs help give me a ring and I'll be happy to assist.

I will put all our tournaments on here. If you have procured rides already please list with who and who the boater/non boater is. This will help me without having to make a hundred phone calls. If you are looking for a ride please include it in the already posted tournaments so we all know where to look.

Thanks guys. Looking forward to a fun year.

Mike
